“ I have a funny little story about my boy Scott (Scotty as I always called him)....

My late cousin, also Scott's closest, dearest friend, Scott Hall, Scotty and I were out shooting B-B- Guns one day out close to behind the old O-I Plant in Clarion,..and Scotty thought...he would just pump up the gun (It was a obvious pumper gun one), to the point where it just wouldn't budge,..and at close range,..shot me right in the old right buttock!!!!

I dropped to the ground both laughing...and sobbing. I had to go to the ER and they regretfully told me,..it was lodged too far down in, they couldn't retrieve it. Though, they were sure it wasn't harmful. So,..now...over 21-22 years later,..I still carry a little reminder of Scotty with me everywhere. Lol.

He was such a dear friend.....never disheartening, degrading, or hateful. He would ALWAYS give a hug no matter where we were, and he was always such a funny, warm guy.

I will always remember our good times (And let me tell ya...there were TONS),.....but always remember his hugs and smiles.

I will miss you man.....say HI to Scott for me.

My condolences to Mike, Mark, Bobby and Leah.

“ I am truly sorry to learn of your loss. The passing of a love one is painful. You have my deepest sympathy. I'd like to share scripture that may bring comfort and hope.

1Thes. 4:13, 14 reads...Moreover, brothers, we do not want you to be ignorant about those who are sleeping in death. For we do not want you to sorrow as the rest who have no hope. If we have faith that Jesus died and rose again, so too God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep through Jesus.

John 11:2 lets us know this...Jesus said to her: I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.

Daniel 12:2 also lets us know...And many who are asleep in the dust of the earth will wake up, some to everlasting life, some....

John 6:40 tells us why these words are faithful and true. For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who recognizes the Son and exercises faith in him should have everlasting life and I will resurrect him on the last day.

I hope these scriptures bring hope and help your family endure.

“ To the Martin Family and Friends - I am deeply saddened about the passing of Scott. I am truly sorry and send many hugs and sympathy to each of you. I was privileged to have met Scotty when he was working in Coshocton, Ohio. I am so glad I had the chance to meet him - he was an all around great guy! I know he was so dedicated and thought the world and loved you so much Justin. I know he will be missed and has made many wonderful memories with so many. He will always be in our hearts - RIP Scotty

“ I have very fond memories of Scott. There was a period of time when he played a role of big brother to not just Bob but also to Bob's friends. He always looked out for us, and when I look back, Scott and the memories really mean a lot to me. I appreciate the years that I was fortunate enough to know Scott and be around him. I am so sorry to hear of this loss. You are a great family and I know you will be there for each other. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

“ I was shocked and saddened to her of Scotts passing. He was the kind of person who would go out of his way to help a friend out. He also was one of the most honest people I know, who never let anything bother him. My thoughts and prayers go to the Martin family, and especially to Justin. I know Scott loved his son very much. RIP Scott.

“ Dear Martin Family,

Brother Scott was a dear and dedicated friend. His combination of selflessness and dedication I am unlikely to encounter again in my lifetime. My life has been enriched in a way words can't describe. It is an honor and privlidge to have been so close with him. He will be dearly missed.
