You were funny and caring and always knew how to make me feel better when I was sad. We understood each other with or with out words. Pika misses you so much and so do I. “ I was one of Shawn’s managers at Taco Bell. We all loved Shawn and I’m sorry for everyone’s great loss. He made the days better with his jokes and how he made suffering together through busy days better. I will forever miss his jokes with customers and the life talks we had on down time. He always helped with everything he could and if he couldn’t he would make a good hearted, but sarcastic, comment to make you laugh. He has been and will be missed greatly at Taco Bell.
