“ My thoughts and prayers go out to Tracy's daughters and family. I did not know her long but in the last two months, I had the pleasure of getting to know Tracy. She was a wonderful therapist and a caring, compassionate coworker that would go out of her way to help you. She made me feel welcome and I truly feel I can call her a friend for that is how she treated everyone. She had a sparkling personality and everyone loved her, and I am sure she will continue to provide love and comfort to those above. I feel blessed to have known Tracy. May she find peace and may her family find strength in that knowledge.

“ Tracy was a student of mine at Nonnewaug High School in Woodbury, Connecticut. And she was a favorite. The smile you see on her obituary was the smile she seemed to have every time she walked into my classroom. My very full heart goes out to everyone else who misses her this day.

“ How grateful I am for the time shared with this beautiful soul. The world is a better place thanks to her many acts of kindness, generosity and love. I will miss her friendship, hugs and gentle spirit and know that these will live on in her two amazing daughters. While she is now at peace and free from the struggles of this world, may our dear Lord give her family and friends strength and comfort for the days ahead.

“ The obituary photo was so familiar and I finally remembered Tracy worked in the dementia unit where my mother was in her final years of life at Golden Living in Shippenville. Tracy was an incredible caring woman so kind and thoughtful to all I remember a client who had been in the unit for years that had few if no visitors. When she was hospice'd, Tracy would use her own time after working and sit with her, hold her hand and sing to her softly. Even years later, when I would run into at the store she would always say hello and we would have a nice conversation. Her daughters were her world. Why are such beautiful souls taken away so quickly it just isn't fair. My heart weeps for the family blessings Tracy will never be forgotten.

“ I can't imagine this world without one of my best friends in it. Even when she had her own struggles, she always listened and made you feel important. I pray that she is finally at peace. Shawn, Maya and Jenna, my thoughts and prayers are with you. I'm thankful for the memories our families have made throughout the years. I will cherish them always!

“ I am truly Blessed to have known Tracy as a friend and colleague. Her gentle and caring spirit, her quirky sense of humor, her kind smile and friendly eyes and her love of animals will be what I remember about Tracy. Although my heart is heavy and I would much rather have her here, I am certain Heaven has gained a very special Angel and that God has something miraculous planned. Shawn, Jenna and Maya and families; It is my prayer that God hug you tightly, ease your hurting hearts and fill your emptiness with the unconditional and abundant love only He can.

“ Tracy ~ We will pray for peace and healing for Jenna and Maya and all who loved you. My memories go back to gymnastics practices and meets with the girls. Fun times. We were so proud of those girls and how fast they learned. Remember their first meet, I think it was in Pittsburgh, and we were so nervous for them? I will keep praying for healing for the family and I promise to show love and kindness to your girls every chance I get.

“ Jean and Tim, we were heartbroken when Amy called us yesterday after seeing a posting on Tracy's Facebook page and told us about her passing. What a tragedy for such a beautiful, loving person.

Our hearts go out to both of you and Tracy's family as you adjust to this untimely loss. Our fond memories of the children (including Tracy and Amy) when we were living next door in Boiling Springs is quite vivid as is the last time we saw Tracy in Orlando and then at her wedding. We also fondly recall you, Tim, when Jack was a baby and I tried to feed him some grits at a Cracker Barrel in Florida -- not well received (perhaps he likes them now).

Love to all of you, Jack and Sue Lehman, 10 Windlass Ct., Salem, SC 29676 relehman@sprintmail.com

“ I don't even know where to start. My heart is so full of memories that I shared with Tracy. I have worked with her for the past 14 years as we found ourselves moving jobs and ending up at the same company working together again. We have laughed together, cried together and shared many life stories. Many prayers go out to Shawn, Maya and Jenna at this time of tragedy. Tracy will truly be missed as a coworker but more as a friend. RIP my friend!
