

Walter Haight II

February 23, 1959 - January 17, 2011

Walter Harold Washington Haight II, 51, of Dolby Lane, Clarion, died Monday, January 17, 2011, at his home due to a structure fire at his residence.

Born February 23, 1959, in Provo, UT, he was the son of Walter Harold Washington Haight and Christina I. Bittenbender.

He was a 1977 graduate of Warren Area High School.

A veteran, he served in the Air Force as a Solar Electric Mechanic.

He was of the Protestant faith.

Wally, as he was known to his family and most who knew him, love people and loved to talk. He also liked working on cars. He had a good voice and loved to sing. He liked watching various movies and had knowledge of many of the actors and actresses. He had a good sense of humor. He would try to get people out of their hurt by making things light and cheerful. He was loved by many and will be missed deeply at this tragic loss.

Surviving is one son, Christopher Haight; two daughters, Tammy Bair and Maria Haight; three siblings, Harold E. Haight and his wife, Althea, of Clarion; Karen Blair and her husband, Jim, of Garner, NC; Valerie Haight of Clarion; one niece, Elizabeth Koger and her husband, Brian, of Laveen, AZ; one nephew Gage Blair of Garner NC; granddaughter, Jazmine Bair and several other grandchildren, and companion, Sonia Bair.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. on Thursday, January 20, 2011, at the Alpha Assembly of God Church in Clarion with Rev. David Selleck officiating.

“ To Walter's Family... The world has lost a kind and gentle soul. He joyfully loved his family, and he was a loyal friend. His children, and his sweet grand-daughter, were the lights of his life. It was always a good day when Walter stopped by my office to say hello. I'll miss him but consider myself one of the lucky ones to have known him. May God Bless all of you. You're in my thoughts and prayers.
