“ Although I only met Wanda a few years ago, I am so glad to have known her as a friend. What a kind, brave person she was--always looking out for others--and she had a great laugh that I will deeply miss. She had such a strong spirit. Even when she was undergoing her chemotherapy treatments she would be the one in the room to lift everyone else's spirits up. I know she loved her big family and her wide circle of friends very much. We will all miss her.

“ We were all saddened to hear of Aunt Wanda's (Scrubby) death. She has fought the brave fight for many years. Our thoughts and prayers go out the Aunt Jean and Aunt Shirley. Wanda is now safe in our Lord's hands and is reunited with those she loved: Janice, Tay, Bill, Jack, Kate, Veva, Mabel, Doris and Mom (Bertha), along with Grandma Myrtle and Grandpa Cecil. What a glorious reunion that must have been. Rest in Peace.
