

William A. Brandenstein

June 17, 1929 - May 21, 2024

William A. "Bill" Brandenstein, 94, of Fisher, passed away peacefully Tuesday evening, May 21, 2024 at his home.

He was born on June 17, 1929 in Pittsburgh; son of the late William N. and Emma Geier Brandenstein.

Bill married the former Lois Stiver in 2010, who survives.

He worked as the manager at Bell Telephone in Pittsburgh for many years until he retired.

Bill proudly served in the United States Army National Guard.

He was a member of the NRA and enjoyed playing the organ and tinkering around the house.

Bill was quite the handyman, fixing anything and everything. He built his own camp in Fisher called "The Cabin".

Bill was a stranger to no one and was known to everyone as "Uncle Bill". He had the biggest heart and was the kindest man. Bill will be greatly missed by everyone he touched.

In addition to his wife, Bill is survived by his brother, Robert "Bob" Brandenstein of Freedom; along with many special nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his first wife, Jean Krass Brandenstein, whom he was married to for over 50 years; and a sister, Beatrice B. Krepps.

The Robert V. Burns Funeral Home in Clarion is handling the arrangements. A celebration of life will be held at a later date.

Inurnment will take place in the Cedarview Memorial Park in Strattanville.

“ Oh so many memories. Bill was part of a Bell Telephone group that my parents were part of, Float trips, corn roasts, to remember a few. We loved Jean and then Lois. It was so special to see him in church after he married Lois.
