“ I worked with Bill in 1976 at then the NW Bank in Oil City, he had the greatest disposition and a great smile. I got married and Bill attended my wedding, his gift was very generous. I moved away after marrying a Navy man, and after we retired from the Navy, we moved back to OC. I'd see him walking around town all the time. I wished I stopped to say hi, now that he is gone. I was sadden to see of his passing. I'm glad he found a good friend to share his life, she must know how special he was. My condolences to all who Bill touched.

“ A man of few words but you always knew what he wanted to express. He was always respectful and was excellent at his job. I will remember his rare smile shown at work. His life ended too soon.
